

BiiGGA Terms and Conditions

1. Sale and Purchase of Future Revenue

The Merchant sells and BiiGGA purchases the Purchased Amount for the Advance Amount. The Advance Amount paid by BiiGGA is for delivery of that portion of the Future Revenue of the Merchant comprising the Purchased Amount and is not a loan or credit from BiiGGA to the Merchant. Upon BiiGGA's payment of the Advance Amount to the Merchant, BiiGGA will own all beneficial right, title and interest in and to the Purchased Amount without need for any other act of transfer. Upon receipt by the Merchant of any Future Revenue comprising any part of the Purchased Amount, the Merchant receives such revenue in trust for BiiGGA and simultaneously transfers to BiiGGA all legal right, title and interest in and to such revenue without need for any other act of transfer. For clarity, the parties intend that the full rights, title and interest in and to the Purchased Amount are assigned and transferred by the Merchant to BiiGGA and the Merchant receives and deals with any Future Revenue comprising any part of the Purchased Amount as trustee in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

2. Assignment of Future Revenue

From the date of the offer, the Merchant irrevocably and unconditionally assigns and transfers to BiiGGA all of its right, title and interest in and to the parts of its Future Revenue determined under this Agreement that come into existence after the date of acceptance of the offer by BiiGGA in consideration for the provision of the Advance Amount in accordance with this Agreement. An assignment or transfer of rights in respect of Future Revenue contemplated by this Agreement will not constitute, and is not intended to result in, any assumption by BiiGGA of any obligation of the Merchant, any of its Authorised Representatives, any customer or vendor of the Merchant, or any other person in connection with the relevant parts of the Merchant's Future Revenue or any document or agreement relating to any of them.

3. Delivery of Purchased Amount

3.1. The Purchased Amount shall immediately be allocated from all Future Revenue of the Merchant first and in priority and held in trust and delivered to BiiGGA in parts as and when any Future Revenue is originated, produced or received by the Merchant and in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. The Merchant shall deliver the Purchased Amount in amounts calculated as the Debit Order Amount and drawn from the Nominated Bank Account on every Debit Order Processing Day.

- 3.2. A debit order to the Nominated Bank will be created on the terms specified in this Agreement, and: (i) the relevant Debit Order Amount will be drawn from the Nominated Bank Account; and (ii) transferred to BiiGGA on every Debit Order Processing Day.
- 3.3. In the event that any of the Future Revenue is for any reason reversed in the Nominated Bank Account, BiiGGA shall not return such reversed amount (or any portion thereof) but shall rather take the reversal into account when assessing any adjustment of the Debit Order Amount during a Review Period.
- 3.4. The Debit Order Amount shall be agreed upon initially by the Parties as set out in the Summary of Advance Arrangement form and may be adjusted by BiiGGA from time to time so as to reflect the agreed Debit Order Type and Debit Order Frequency and BiiGGA's assessments from time to time. Any such adjustment of the Debit Order Amount is within BiiGGA's sole and absolute discretion, subject only to the terms of this Agreement, and the Merchant does not require notice of such adjustments or assessments.
- 3.5. In the event a debit order is returned unpaid, the Merchant consents to BiiGGA re-submitting any unpaid or unprocessed debit order in addition to any other debit order.
- 3.6. By signing a Direct Debit Order or by providing BiiGGA with a valid instruction, the Merchant has authorised BiiGGA to arrange for funds comprising the Purchased Amount or amounts payable under the Agreement to be debited from the Nominated Bank Account. BiiGGA will only arrange for funds to be debited from the Nominated Bank Account as authorised in the Direct Debit Order.
- 3.7. If the Debit Order Processing Day falls on a day that is not a banking day, BiiGGA may direct the Nominated Bank to debit the Nominated Bank Account on the previous banking day. If the Merchant is unsure about which day the Nominated Bank Account has or will be debited the Merchant should ask its Nominated Bank.
- 3.8. BiiGGA may vary any details of a Direct Debit Order at any time in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and is not required to notify the Merchant of such changes. Any step taken by the Merchant to change, alter or otherwise deal with the Direct Debit Order, may be an Event of Default. The Merchant may change its Nominated Bank Account, Read-Only Access or like delivery arrangements in respect of debit orders only upon the expiry of at least 7 days' written notice to BiiGGA, which notice must provide details of the changes and confirmation that the arrangements for the purposes of the Agreement apply to such changed Direct Debit Order. In the event that Read-Only Access to the Nominated Bank Account is changed without notification and provision of renewed Read-Only Access is denied due an immediate and necessary event requiring such change to protect the Nominated Bank Account (for example the loss or compromise of a password or notice from the Nominated Bank of a system compromise), the Merchant shall promptly provide BiiGGA with renewed Read-Only Access and details of changes in writing within 5 days of such changes. The Merchant's financial institution may change the Merchant's debit payment only to the extent of advising BiiGGA of the Merchant's new account details.

3.9. It is the Merchant's responsibility to ensure that BiiGGA has Read-Only Access to the Nominated Bank Account at all times and there are sufficient cleared funds available in the Nominated Bank Account to allow a debit order to be made in accordance with the Direct Debit Order. If there are insufficient cleared funds in the Merchant's Nominated Bank Account to meet a debit payment or Read-Only Access is not available to BiiGGA: (i) the Merchant may be charged a fee and interest by the Nominated Bank; (ii) the Merchant may also be responsible for fees or charges incurred by BiiGGA in respect of the insufficient cleared funds in the Merchant's Nominated Bank Account to meet a debit payment or Read-Only Access is not available to BiiGGA; and (iii) the Merchant must arrange for Read-Only Access to the Nominated Bank Account and sufficient cleared funds to be in the Nominated Bank Account so that BiiGGA can calculate the Debit Order Amount and process the relevant Debit Order Amount.

3.10. The Merchant undertakes to regularly check the Nominated Bank Account statements to verify that the amounts debited from the Merchant's account are correct. If the Merchant believe that there has been an error in debiting the Nominated Bank Account, the Merchant should raise a query with BiiGGA directly on 1300 472 663 and confirm that notice in writing in accordance with BiiGGA's Code of Practise as soon as possible so that BiiGGA can resolve the Merchant's query in a timely fashion.

3.11. The Merchant warrants that: (i) it has confirmed with the Nominated Bank whether direct debiting is available from the Nominated Bank Account (as direct debiting is not available on all accounts offered by financial institutions); and (ii) the Nominated Bank Account details which the Merchant has provided to BiiGGA are verified as correct by checking those details against a recent account statement from the Nominated Bank; and (iii) it has consulted with the Nominated Bank before completing the Direct Debit Order and providing access to the Nominated Bank Account (should the Merchant have any queries about how to complete the Direct Debit Order or how to provide BiiGGA with access to the Nominated Bank Account).

3.12. The parties agree that the mechanism for delivery of the Purchased Amount may be changed in the future as more effective, more efficient or more flexible payment or delivery mechanisms become available in the banking, payments and settlements infrastructure. It is agreed by the parties that such change will only occur if the Merchant and BiiGGA consent thereto in writing, such consents not to be unreasonably withheld.

The Merchant makes the representations and warranties set out in this Agreement, whether in this section or elsewhere in this document, on the date of this Agreement and on each day on which any Purchased Amount (including any Further Purchase) is outstanding. - 6. Further Purchases
- 6.1. BiiGGA may, upon application by the Merchant, agree to further purchases of the Merchant's Future Revenue ("Further Purchase").

- 6.2. The Merchant's application for a Further Purchase will be in such form or manner as notified by BiiGGA to the Merchant as the "Further Purchase Schedule" and shall be an addendum to this Agreement.
- 6.3. Upon execution of a Further Purchase Schedule by the parties, the Merchant will sell and BiiGGA will purchase the Further Purchased Amount from the Merchant for the Further Purchase Amount, and such Further Purchased Amount is added to and becomes part of the Purchased Amount under the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 6.4. Any of the defined items set out in the Further Purchase Schedule will supplement, vary or substitute the same or corresponding defined items set out in this Agreement. Notwithstanding any Further Purchases, the merchant number allocated to the Merchant by BiiGGA in respect of this Agreement will remain the same.
- 6.5. For clarity: (i) the Merchant shall have no right or option or entitlement to a Further Purchase by BiiGGA; (ii) the provisions of this section will apply in respect of each and every Further Purchase as may be agreed by BiiGGA; and (iii) unless otherwise agreed by the parties, save as expressly set out in a Further Purchase Schedule the definitions, terms, conditions, warranties, covenants and obligations set out in this Agreement shall remain unaltered and shall apply to any Further Purchases.

7. Settlement of Purchased Amount

- 7.1. To the extent of the law, and except to the extent of BiiGGA's own fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct, the Merchant indemnifies BiiGGA against any resulting loss, cost or expense

- 7.3. This section will survive the discharge of this Agreement and any assignment, transfer, surrender or release of the duties and obligations of the Merchant and powers of attorney (as the case may be).

8. Sureties Guarantee the Merchant's Performance

- 8.1. Each Surety whose personal details are submitted to and verified by BiiGGA and are named in the offer or otherwise under this Agreement have by submission and verification of those personal details (whether by the Merchant or the Authorised Representative or any person responsible for the offer) agreed and undertaken to (i) provide a personal surety for the Merchant and (ii) to guarantee the punctual performance of the Merchant strictly in accordance with this Agreement and (iii) to the extent of the law, and except to the extent of BiiGGA's own fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct, to indemnify BiiGGA on a full indemnity basis (including legal costs charged at the usual commercial rates of the relevant legal services provider) against all loss, cost or expense BiiGGA might suffer or incur in relying on the Merchant's representations or covenants, or taking steps under this Agreement or enforcing this Agreement against the Merchant. The Sureties' liability extends to any Further Purchases in terms of section 6 of this Agreement, provided that the Merchant (or BiiGGA on the Merchant's behalf) and BiiGGA notify the Surety of the Further Purchase within 5 days of concluding the Further Purchase.
- 8.2. Each Surety warrants it has taken all necessary personal advice, action and steps to understand and undertake and authorise and agree such surety and documents to which the Surety is expressed to be a party, and to carry out the transactions contemplated by those documents. The Surety further acknowledges and confirms that it has received a copy of the Agreement, which the Surety has read, and the Surety has obtained independent legal advice on aspects of any quotation, its offer and this Agreement, it required, such that the Surety understands the contents and the legal implications of its surety and this Agreement and makes an informed decision to provide such surety and bind itself under this Agreement.

- 8.3. In the event that the Merchant does not punctually perform strictly in accordance with this Agreement (at any time and from time to time and whether or not it is in the control of the Merchant), the Sureties (and each of them) forfeits a Surety Amount to BiiGGA. The forfeited Surety Amount is immediately due and payable on issue of a Forfeit Certificate by BiiGGA and shall be paid personally by the relevant Surety upon presentment of such Forfeit Certificate. The forfeited Surety Amount is an amount distinct from the Purchased Amount and is not contingent on any Future Revenue of the Merchant, other claims, payments or settlements under this Agreement and shall be enforced as a separate claim against the Surety personally in terms of the Forfeit Certificate and without prejudice to any of the other parties' rights, interests or remedies under this Agreement, including the continuing guarantee and indemnity provided by the Sureties and such further or additional Surety Amounts. A party may, without prejudice to any other rights it may have in terms of this Agreement or at law and upon written notice to the relevant Surety, report that Surety's default (whether a default in paying a forfeited Surety Amount or a default in the guaranteed performance of the Merchant or a default in the Surety's indemnity or otherwise a default under or breach of this Agreement) to a credit reporting agency. Any payments of a forfeited Surety Amount will usually be applied to the relevant Surety's indemnity, but may be applied to reduce the amount of the Purchased Amount still to be delivered to BiiGGA by the Merchant (at any time and from time to time) or otherwise and without prejudice to any of the other parties' rights, interests or remedies under this Agreement, including the continuing guarantee and indemnity provided by the Sureties and such further or additional Surety Amounts or forfeited Surety Amounts.
- 8.4. BiiGGA is authorised to provide each Surety with notices regarding the Merchant's performance and each Surety's performance and all other communications between BiiGGA and the Merchant and BiiGGA and each Surety, including any requests from a Surety to withdraw or limit its suretyship.
- 8.5. BiiGGA may consent to the withdrawal or limitation of a suretyship (including a discharge and release) provided another like or similar suretyship in manner or form consistent with the surety as it existed prior to such variation, and reasonably acceptable to BiiGGA is substituted. BiiGGA must consent to the withdrawal or limitation of a suretyship (including a discharge and release) provided: (i) another like or similar suretyship in manner or form consistent with the surety as it existed prior to such variation, and reasonably acceptable to BiiGGA is substituted; and (ii) all the other Sureties (if more than one) and the Merchant give their prior written consent to such withdrawal or limitation (including a discharge and release) and substitution. The party seeking the withdrawal or limitation of a suretyship (including a discharge and release) is obliged to obtain the substituted suretyship and all necessary written consents.

9. Appointment of Attorney

- 9.1. The Merchant irrevocably appoints BiiGGA and each authorised representative of BiiGGA severally as the Merchant's attorney to anything that the Merchant must or may do by law, on the Merchant's behalf and in the Merchant's name while the Purchased Amount (including any Further Purchases) or any part thereof is outstanding to: (i) give full effect to this Agreement; (ii) further secure or better secure the Merchant's performance under this Agreement; or (iii) assist in the execution or exercise of any power upon an Event of Default or for anything else that the Merchant must do, or that BiiGGA may do, under this Agreement or by law. The attorney may exercise any power for the exclusive benefit of BiiGGA and the Merchant agrees to ratify anything done by an attorney under this appointment.
- 9.2. The appointment of attorney by the Merchant under this Agreement is made primarily to assure the proper exercise of the Merchant's duties and powers under this Agreement in case there is an Event of Default, but also to secure the performance of the Merchant's obligations under this Agreement. As such BiiGGA or an attorney will forbear exercising the powers granted by the Merchant unless there is a wrongdoing by the Merchant or any of its Authorised Representatives or Sureties (generally, and without limitation, any failure to perform strictly in accordance with this Agreement by the Merchant or its Sureties is considered a wrongdoing by the Merchant and its Sureties). BiiGGA or an attorney is thus not required (but may do so to ensure the BiiGGA's interests are protected or to ensure that BiiGGA's interests do not suffer prejudice) to give notice of the grant of power of attorney to any other person or to obtain the Merchant's consent to any exercise of a power under this Agreement.

10. Events of Default

10.3. Covenants: An undertaking or covenant in the Agreement, including those in this section, (howsoever described) is not satisfied. Unless stated otherwise in the relevant covenant, no Event of Default under this paragraph will occur where the failure to satisfy any covenant is remedied within 7 days of such failure, provided the Merchant is diligently pursuing a remedy in respect of such failure to satisfy.

10.4. Misrepresentation: A material representation, warranty or statement made or deemed to be made by or on behalf of the Merchant in this Agreement, or in a document provided under or in connection with this Agreement, is or proves to have been incorrect or misleading when made or deemed to be made.

10.5. Bankruptcy, administration, winding up, arrangements, insolvency etc.: An administrator of the Merchant is appointed. Except for the purpose of a solvent reconstruction or amalgamation previously approved by BiiGGA; (i) an application or an order is made, proceedings are commenced, a resolution is passed or proposed in a notice of meeting, an application to a court or other steps are taken, for: (a) the bankruptcy, winding up, dissolution or administration of the Merchant; or (b) the Merchant entering into an arrangement, compromise or composition with or assignment for the benefit of its creditors or a class of them, other than frivolous or vexatious applications, proceedings, notices and steps or, in the case of an application for the winding up, dissolution or administration of the Merchant, that application is withdrawn, permanently stayed or dismissed within 14 days of being made; or (ii) the Merchant ceases, suspends or threatens to cease or suspend the conduct of all or a substantial part of its business or disposes of or threatens to dispose of a substantial part of its assets. The Merchant: (i) is, or under legislation is presumed or taken to be, insolvent or bankrupt (other than as the result of a failure to pay a debt or claim the subject of a good faith dispute); or (ii) stops or suspends or threatens to stop or suspend payment of all or a class of its debts.

10.6. Enforcement against assets: A receiver, receiver and manager, administrative receiver or similar officer is appointed to: (i) a security interest that becomes enforceable or is enforced over; or (ii) a distress, attachment or other execution is levied or enforced or applied for over, all or any of the assets and undertakings of the Merchant.

10.7. Read-Only Access: The Merchant changes the Nominated Bank Account or BiiGGA's Read-Only Access to the Nominated Bank Account, unless such changes are duly and properly notified to BiiGGA or such change arises from an immediate and necessary event requiring such change to protect the Nominated Bank Account (for example the loss or compromise of a password or notice from the Nominated Bank of a system compromise), in which event the Merchant shall promptly provide BiiGGA with renewed Read-Only Access. In the event that Read-Only Access to the Nominated Bank Account is changed without notification and provision of renewed Read-Only Access is denied due to exigent circumstances (an immediate and necessary event requiring such change to protect the Nominated Bank Account), then should the Merchant remedy the failure to notify and provide the requisite explanation and Read-Only Access to the Nominated Bank Account within 5 days of such exigent circumstances, such failures shall not be an Event of Default for these purposes.

10.8. Investigation: An investigation into all or part of the affairs of the Merchant commences under companies legislation or law in circumstances material to its financial condition.

10.9. Analogous process: Anything analogous to anything referred to in this section inclusive, or which has substantially similar effect, occurs with respect to the Merchant.

- 10.10. Vitiating of documents: All or any part of this Agreement is terminated or is or becomes void, illegal, invalid, unenforceable, varied or of limited force and effect; a party becomes entitled to terminate, rescind or avoid all or part of this Agreement; or a person other than BiiGGA or an authority (such as a government agency or a tribunal or association or mediator or ombudsman) or a court of law alleges or asserts or orders (as the case may be) that an event described in this paragraph has occurred or that it is entitled to so claim or assert or order as described in this paragraph.
- 10.11. Revocation of Authorisation: An authorisation which is material to the performance by the Merchant of this Agreement, or to the validity and enforceability of this Agreement or to the duties owed to BiiGGA, is repealed, revoked or terminated or expires, or is modified or amended or conditions are attached to it in a manner detrimental to BiiGGA's interests or not reasonably acceptable to BiiGGA, and is not replaced by another like or similar authorisation in manner or form reasonably acceptable to BiiGGA.
- 10.12. Revocation of Surety: A surety provided to BiiGGA in respect of the Merchant's performance is revoked or terminated or expires, or is modified or amended or conditions are attached to it in a manner unacceptable to BiiGGA, and the surety is not replaced by another like or similar surety in manner or form consistent with the surety as it existed prior to such variation, and reasonably acceptable to BiiGGA in accordance with this Agreement.
- 10.13. Control of Merchant: There is a change in the ownership, management or control of the Merchant that has occurred without the prior consent of BiiGGA, which consent may be withheld unless the changed owners, managers or controllers of the Merchant (i) confirm the Merchant's continued warranties, covenants and obligations under this Agreement and (ii) affirm that they will continue to cause the Merchant to perform in accordance with this Agreement in manner or form consistent with the Merchant's performance as it existed prior to such change, and reasonably acceptable to BiiGGA.
- 10.14. Cessation of business: The Merchant ceases or suspends or thereafter to cease or suspend to carry on all or a substantial part of its business.
- 10.15. Compulsory acquisition: All or any part of the revenue or other assets of the Merchant is compulsorily acquired by or by order of a government agency or under law; a government agency orders the sale, vesting or divesting of all or any part of the revenue or other assets of the Merchant; or a government agency takes a step for the purpose of any of the above or proposes or threatens to do any of the above.

- 10.16. Governmental interference: A law or anything done by a government agency wholly or partially renders illegal, prevents or restricts the performance or effectiveness of this Agreement or otherwise has or is likely to have an adverse effect on BiiGGA's interests under this Agreement or otherwise is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Merchant's ability to satisfy its obligations under this Agreement.
- 10.17. Material Adverse Effect: Any event or series of events, whether related or not, occurs which reasonably has or is likely to have a material adverse effect on BiiGGA's interests under this Agreement and which effect or effects are not remediated within 7 days of such event or series of events. The party alleging the occurrence of an event or series of events, whether related or not, which reasonably has or is likely to have a material adverse effect on BiiGGA's interests under this Agreement is responsible for proving the occurrence of such event(s) and effect(s). The party alleging such effect or effects were remediated within 7 days of such event or series of events or were not capable of remedy or were not material such as to require remediation is responsible for proving such remediation or that such effect(s) were not capable of remedy or were not material such as to require remediation.

11. BiiGGA's Rights upon an Event of Default

In addition to any other rights or claims or powers BiiGGA may be entitled to exercise under this Agreement or in law, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default or at any time thereafter whilst the Event of Default is continuing: (a) an amount equal to the amount of the Purchased Amount still to be delivered to BiiGGA at the time of the Event of Default shall be immediately due and payable upon presentment of a Default Certificate to the Merchant; (b) the Merchant must upon demand by BiiGGA immediately pay in full all money owed under this Agreement (in the case of an additional charge, such as overdue interest, collections costs, court fees or legal costs incurred by BiiGGA, reduced to an amount which BiiGGA determines is attributable to the period up to the date of the demand); (c) BiiGGA may, without prejudice to any other rights it may have in terms of this Agreement or at law and upon written notice to the Merchant, report the Merchant's default to a credit reporting agency (d) BiiGGA is entitled but not obliged, without prejudice to any other rights it may have in terms of this Agreement or at law and by written notice to the Merchant, to cancel this Agreement and claim from the Merchant as liquidated damages the full amount which BiiGGA would have received had the Event of Default not occurred. Notwithstanding such cancellation or other step in connection with an Event of Default, BiiGGA shall be entitled to continue submitting Debit Orders to the Nominated Bank Account on every Debit Order Processing Day.

12. Quotations & Inquiries

Any inquiry or resulting quotation to consider an offer is valid for 15 days from date of issue. A quotation does not indicate approval of the Merchant's offer, which is subject to BiiGGA's Advance Amount risk assessment and the terms and conditions of this Agreement. BiiGGA reserves the right to amend the quotation if the resultant offer would be outside the terms of this Agreement. The Merchant consents to and agrees that BiiGGA can make any enquiries (including obtaining and retaining and using personal, sensitive and private information) in relation to a quotation, the Merchant's offer or to any subsequent offers or this Agreement that BiiGGA may require and to any persons, including any credit reporting agency or bank, and provide those persons with details of the quotation or the offer or this Agreement and any matter arising from such quotation, offer and this Agreement now or in the future.

13. Additional Charges and Certificates

- 13.1. The Merchant is responsible for all duty, taxes or government fees it is required by law to pay, whether as a trustee under this Agreement and whether as a business in connection with this Agreement or otherwise and no liability for a failure to pay duty, taxes or government fees in this regard shall arise for BiiGGA. The Merchant must in addition to any other amounts pay all costs, fees and interest incurred by BiiGGA following any breach of this Agreement or default by the Merchant or a Surety, including those following an Event of Default.
- 13.2. The parties agree that any certificate signed by or issued under the signature of BiiGGA or on BiiGGA's behalf certifying an amount as due and payable or the amount of the Purchased Amount still outstanding (whether currently due and payable or deliverable or not), and any other information recorded on such a certificate as to any fact, matter or thing related to the Purchased Amount, a surety or otherwise in terms of this Agreement, will be accepted as prima facie (that is, face value) proof of the contents and correctness of the certificate. It will not be necessary to prove the appointment or signature of the person signing any such certificate. Such certificate will be sufficient for the purposes of any queries, complaints or dispute resolution process, including summary judgment, default judgment, provisional sentence, interim or permanent injunctions or any other proceedings, shall be valid as a liquid document for such purposes and shall, in addition, be prima facie (that is, face value) proof for purposes of queries, complaints, disputes, grievances, pleadings or trials in any proceedings (whether at court, arbitration or mediation and under any dispute resolution process whether formal or informal) arising from this Agreement. The parties agree that, except for any manifest error, in order to prosecute or defend (as the case may be) any such queries or complaints or disputes or proceedings, it will be necessary for the party disputing such certificate to prove that the information (including dates and amounts) recorded on the certificate is not correct as at the date stated on the certificate or as at the date of the certificate.

14. Termination and Liability for Loss

- 14.1. This Agreement may be cancelled by either the Merchant or BiiGGA, with or without cause, upon the expiry of 30 days' written notice to the other. If the Merchant cancels this Agreement, with or without cause, its notice of cancellation to BiiGGA is irrevocable and save as set out in this Agreement, BiiGGA will thereupon have no obligation or duty to provide capital, though BiiGGA's rights and powers under this Agreement remain in force and enforceable until BiiGGA has received all monies payable to it under the Agreement (and BiiGGA will not breach any duty or incur any liability as a result of exercising such rights and powers). Upon the cancellation of this Agreement for any reason, BiiGGA remains entitled to recover from the Merchant and its Sureties such compensation and reimbursement, if any, accrued under the terms of this Agreement including an amount calculated as though the Future Revenue had been realised and the balance of the Purchased Amount had been collected, but not yet delivered, by the Merchant as of the date the Agreement was cancelled and that amount and all fees and charges up to the date of the cancellation will be charged and become immediately payable. For clarity, and without limiting the foregoing, whether this Agreement is cancelled or terminates with or without cause, the Merchant shall nevertheless pay the balance of the Purchased Amount that would have been deliverable but for the cancellation or termination. In addition, the Merchant shall reimburse BiiGGA for any non-cancellable obligations, any cancellation penalties, and, unless BiiGGA terminates the Agreement without cause, any expenditures reasonably made or undertaken in order to make the capital available and perform the services that were to occur had cancellation not occurred. Upon the cancellation of this Agreement or termination of this Agreement for any reason BiiGGA will issue a final certificate of account as soon as practicable which will include the balance of the Purchased Amount as liquidated damages, fees, charges and expenses and which the Merchant agrees and undertakes to pay as stipulated in this Agreement (including by process of a Debit Order).

- 14.2. None of BiiGGA or any of its authorised representatives or any attorney is liable for any exercise, omission, or delay in exercising any power, right, discretion or remedy under this Agreement or for any involuntary loss or irregularity that may occur in relation to the exercise or non-exercise of any of them except to the extent of its own fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct. To the extent permitted by law, none of BiiGGA, an authorised representative of BiiGGA or attorney or other person appointed by BiiGGA under this Agreement is liable for any loss that the Merchant or a Surety suffers as a direct or indirect result of the exercise or attempted exercise of, or failure to exercise, any of BiiGGA's rights contained in this Agreement or any release or dealing with a bank account or an insurance policy or any sureties or guarantees or other security interest (including any prejudice to or loss of the Merchant's rights of subrogation). For clarity, on 'the extent of the law' (but without limiting that phrase), if any legislation: (i) states that BiiGGA is providing a good or service under this Agreement; and (ii) it is proved by the party making the allegation that BiiGGA is providing a good or service under this Agreement for the purpose of that legislation; and (iii) there is a guarantee in relation to any good or service supplied by BiiGGA in connection with this Agreement for the purpose of that legislation; and (iv) BiiGGA's liability for failing to comply with that guarantee cannot be excluded but may be limited under that legislation, then: BiiGGA's liability for that failure is limited to (at its election), in the case of a supply of goods, BiiGGA replacing the goods or supplying equivalent goods or repairing the goods, or in the case of a supply of services, BiiGGA supplying the services again or paying the cost of having the services supplied again. To the extent permitted by law, if BiiGGA is in possession of a bank account or an insurance policy or a receiver enters into possession of such bank account or such insurance policy, none of BiiGGA, any of its authorised representatives or agents or any attorney or other person authorised by BiiGGA is liable to account, whether as owner or secured party in possession or otherwise, for anything except actual receipts; or for any loss on realisation or for any default or omission for which an owner or secured party in possession might be liable. BiiGGA, an authorised representative of BiiGGA, or attorney, or other person appointed by BiiGGA under this Agreement may exercise or agree to exercising a power given by this Agreement or by law even though that person may have an actual or potential conflict of interest or duty in, or might benefit from, exercising the power. Except to the extent of BiiGGA's performance of its obligations under this Agreement or BiiGGA's own fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct, the Merchant absolutely and unconditionally indemnifies BiiGGA on a full indemnity basis (including legal costs charged at the usual commercial rates of the relevant legal services provider) against all loss, cost or expense BiiGGA might suffer or incur in relying on the Merchant's or the Authorised Representatives' representations, taking steps under this Agreement or enforcing this Agreement against the Merchant or the Authorised Representatives.

15. Interpretation, Severability and Governing Law

Unless otherwise defined in this document, all capitalised terms in this document have the meaning given to them in Glossary section. The singular includes the plural and insofar as the Merchant comprises two or more persons (as defined in the offer) this Agreement binds those persons jointly and severally as though each had entered into this Agreement separately. If any part of this Agreement is unenforceable, illegal or void then it is severed and the rest of this Agreement remains in force. The rules of construction that a contract shall be interpreted against the party responsible for the drafting or preparation of the contract or that a clause shall be construed against the party who holds the benefit of that clause, shall not apply. Save as expressly set out in this Agreement, the rules of construction or evidence that a party making an allegation in any dispute arising from a contract is responsible for proving that allegation shall be applied and any presumptions to the contrary in any legislation are waived by the parties and deemed to be rebutted by this clause. BiiGGA may change its privacy policy, terms of use, Code of Practise and Terms and Conditions from time to time; however, unless otherwise set out in the Agreement, any changes that are material will only apply upon 30 days' notice of such changes to the parties, and the parties will thereafter be deemed to have agreed to those changes. Changes to Codes, policies and terms and conditions occur because of changes from time to time in operating costs, changes in the law, changes in BiiGGA's business and other market conditions. The Merchant's right to cancel the Agreement and the Surety's right to obtain consent to the withdrawal or limitation of a suretyship (including a discharge and release) will not be affected by any such changes. The Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Queensland. Save as set out in the Agreement, the parties irrevocably and unconditionally submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Queensland courts and agree that time is of the essence in relation to the performance of its obligations under this Agreement. No waiver or period of grace or forbearance by BiiGGA will apply unless given in writing by BiiGGA. Any waiver or period of grace or forbearance by BiiGGA will apply strictly in the terms stated in such written communication and shall apply only to the extent of such terms and shall not otherwise detract from or diminish the Merchant's duties or the Surety's obligations or BiiGGA's rights or powers or discretions to require punctual and strict performance by the Merchant at any other time.

16. Notices

All notices must be in writing. Any party may serve notice by hand delivery, post, delivery to the last known facsimile number, by Short Message Service ("SMS") to the phone number nominated or to the email address nominated (i) for BiiGGA, by BiiGGA as set out in this Agreement; or (ii) for the Merchant, by the Merchant as set out in the Summary of Advance Arrangement form; or (iii) for the Surety, by the Surety as set out in the Summary of Advance Arrangement form. A notice posted will be deemed received on the 3rd business day after posting. A notice sent by SMS or electronic mail will be deemed to be received immediately after sending unless an automated system generated non-delivery notification is received within 1 hour of transmission. A notice sent by facsimile transmission will be deemed received on production of a transmission report showing the facsimile was sent to the relevant facsimile number without error. A party may change its nominated addresses (or any of them) on 7 days' notice to the other parties. The parties agree that all processes, including complaints, disputes, and court processes, may be duly served on the respective party by electronic means and shall be deemed to be duly served on the day after transmission to the last nominated or notified email address.

17. Assignment of this Agreement

BiiGGA may assign its rights under this Agreement to anyone and without notice to the Merchant. The Merchant may not assign its rights under this Agreement without BiiGGA's prior written consent and to the extent of the law any successor of the Merchant is bound by the terms of this Agreement. A reference in this Agreement to the Merchant or the Surety or BiiGGA includes a reference to any respective successors and assigns.

18. Consideration

The Merchant acknowledges that the Merchant has received valuable consideration from BiiGGA for the Advance Amount which includes, but is not limited to, BiiGGA accepting the offer and entering into the Agreement. The Merchant further acknowledges and confirms that the Merchant has received a copy of the Agreement, which the Merchant has read, and the Merchant has obtained independent legal advice on aspects of any quotation, its offer and this Agreement the Merchant required, such that the Merchant understands the contents and the legal implications of its offer and this Agreement and makes an informed decision to enter into this Agreement.

19. Acknowledgement

20.2. the action that BiiGGA considers appropriate in relation to any overdue obligation or any default on the terms of obligations owed to BiiGGA; and (f) to provide the Merchant with information about other products and services offered by BiiGGA.

20.3. If the Merchant or its Authorised Representatives or its Sureties do not provide the private information sought by BiiGGA, now and from time to time in the future, BiiGGA may be unable to provide capital or goods or services or to administer its business. Advance Fee: The amount charged by BiiGGA in respect of paying the Advance Amount upfront for future revenue of the Merchant and providing services and systems to enable the arrangements made under the Agreement after the offer is processed.

Agreement: The BiiGGA Terms and Conditions document, any addenda thereto and the Summary of Advance Arrangement form, the BiiGGA privacy policy and the BiiGGA Code of Practise read together and comprising the complete memorial of the agreement between the Merchant and the Sureties (as defined in the Summary of Advance Arrangement form) and BiiGGA for the purchase of Future Revenue from the Merchant by BiiGGA.

Authorised Representative: The person or persons whom usually have authority to represent the Merchant, including the Merchant's directors, officers, responsible persons, partners, trustees (in the case of corporate trustees, each of its directors, officers, responsible persons, agents and representatives personally) and any other of the Merchant's agents or representatives, and personally as a surety when such person's personal details are verified by BiiGGA and noted on the Summary of Advance Arrangement form (whether by the Merchant or by BiiGGA or whether as being responsible for or giving rise to the offer or providing a surety under the offer) or otherwise in the Agreement.

BiiGGA: BiiGGA Pty Ltd ABN 95 649 864 915.

Debit Order Amount: The amount of Future Revenue that is part of the Purchased Amount to be delivered to BiiGGA by the Merchant on each Debit Order Processing Day, as stipulated in the Summary of Advance Arrangement form under the Advance Details section and as varied by BiiGGA from time to time upon calculating or recalculating the amount or as otherwise varied or changed from time to time under the Agreement.

Debit Order Frequency: The frequency of the Debit Order to be submitted to the Nominated Bank pursuant to the delivery of the Future Revenue, as stipulated in the Summary of Advance Arrangement form and as may be varied from time to time in accordance with the Agreement.

Debit Order Processing Day: Each Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday on which a debit order could be processed and each day that BiiGGA should receive delivery of a Debit Order Amount by processing a Debit Order, as the case may be.

Debit Order Type: The type of Debit Order Amount may be a fixed amount for a period of time ('Review Period') or it may a variable amount that changes as the Merchant's income from selling its goods varies in the ordinary course of its business and for a period of time ('Review Period'), as stipulated in the Summary of Advance Arrangement form and as may be varied from time to time in accordance with the Agreement.

Event of Default: The events of default described in section 10 of the Terms and Conditions.

Future Revenue: The income of the Merchant to be earned by the Merchant from selling its goods or providing its services to its customers or clients in the ordinary course of its business and before subtracting the Merchant's expenses (whether accrued or to be accrued by the Merchant) and without any returns, deductions, discounts or set-offs applicable after the sale is concluded. Any such income is earned in the future if that income arises from a sale occurring at any time after payment of the Advance Amount and regardless of when that income is payable or is paid to the Merchant.

Merchant: The person or persons described in the Summary of Advance Arrangement form under the Merchant Details section making the offer to BiiGGA and if such person is a natural person, the verified birthdate and the Australian Business Number and driver's license number of that person; and if such person is a legal person, the verified date of registration, incorporation or founding and the Australian Business Number of that person.

Nominated Bank: The bank nominated by the Merchant in the Summary of Advance Arrangement form corresponding to the BSB number in the Advance Details and as may be varied from time to time in accordance with the Agreement.

Purchased Amount: The portion of the Future Revenue (calculated as the sum of the Advance Amount and the Advance Fee) purchased from the Merchant, being the amount stipulated in the Summary of Advance Arrangement form and to be delivered to BiiGGA out of the Merchant's Future Revenue in accordance with the Agreement.

Review Period: The period of time (as a factor) used to calculate or recalculate the Debit Order Amount when BiiGGA assesses the historic revenue of the merchant for the purposes of attributing likely future revenue (as a factor) during the period of time and multiplying it by the Specified Percentage. If the Debit Order Type is 'variable' then the result is divided by the number of Debit Order Processing Days that would fall in that period of time in order to adjust and determine the Debit Order Amount applicable to likely future revenue (as a factor) until the next assessment occurs. Assessments are internal to BiiGGA's process and are usually undertaken by BiiGGA at least once every 14 days if the Debit Order Frequency is greater than daily, but the assessment may occur more or less frequently if the nature of the Merchant's business, performance, historical revenue or likely future revenue indicates otherwise. An assessment during a 'fixed' Debit Order Type will not change the Debit Order Amount during the period that the Debit Order Amount is fixed unless there is a failure by the Merchant or its Surety in that period.

Specified Percentage or Specified %: The factor (as a percentage) used to calculate the amount of Future Revenue that is part of the Purchased Amount to be delivered to BiiGGA on each Debit Order Processing Day. A percentage (as a factor) may be used in BiiGGA's assessments and other internal processes even if the Specified Percentage is shown as 'not applicable' in the Summary of Advance Arrangement form. A 'not applicable' may appear in the Specified Percentage field in the Summary of Advance Arrangement form as an indication that the Debit Order Type is 'fixed'.

Summary of Advance Arrangement form: The Merchant details, the Surety/ies details, the Nominated Bank details and the Advance Details screens on BiiGGA's online platform and the content thereof as a form submitted by the Merchant / Surety or the Merchant's / Surety's representative (as the case may be).

Surety Amount: The lesser of $4,000 or an amount of money equal to 10% of the Purchased Amount that the Surety undertakes to forfeit upon the Merchant's failure to perform under the Agreement and each time the Merchant fails to perform, or otherwise as stipulated in the Summary of Advance Arrangement form.
